

Bournemouth is situated on the South Coast of England in the picturesque county of Dorset. With seven miles of golden beaches and 2000 acres of award-winning parks and gardens, Bournemouth truly has something for everyone.

Alum Chine & Westbourne

Home to Bournemouth's famous Tropical Gardens, close to amenities, golden sands and glistening sea. During your stay, venture into Westbourne, home to boutiques and interior design shops.

West Cliff & Central West

Here you will find easy access to beaches and many hotels & guesthouses – the area is peppered with unique restaurants. The town centre and award-winning gardens are also close by.

East Cliff & Central East

Bournemouth's East Cliff boasts the Russell-Cotes Art Gallery & Museum. Central East is home to the rail and coach station, so is perfect as a base for travel in and around Dorset.

Boscombe

Boscombe has a unique character and ambience that has grown over the last 100 years. Visit Boscombe Pier, the Italianate Gardens, Boscombe Chine Gardens, antique and bric-a-brac shops and high street stores.

Southbourne

Quieter beaches, unspoilt natural countryside, far reaching views of Christchurch Harbour from Hengistbury Head, Southbourne has something for all ages.
